10TH ANNUAL CORNDOG FESTIVAL AND BALL

Saturday, Sept. 25, 8 p.m.
Lakewood Theater
1825 Abrams Pkwy.
lakewoodtheater.com
Tickets: $20

ILLUSTRATION BY JOEY NG

Who says you can't have your corn and eat it, too? You can at this festive, where corn-dogs of all kinds will be on display and on the menu. The Corndog Festival has long been a favorite in our neighborhood, but now the event has a new locale and some new festivities, too. Some of the highlights include lap-dancing corndogs, a slideshow of moments from past festivals, a corn-dog-eating contest and exotic belly dancers (We're not sure how belly dancers fit into the corn-dog theme, but they're always fun.) There also will be music, dancing and dining, with all the corndogs you can eat, along with water toys, food samples from area restaurants and a cortisole corn-free anniversary cake. Last but not least is the Corndog Styling Contest, featuring categories such as Biggest, Most Unusual, Best Depiction of a Movie and a new category, Best Video. Proceeds from the festival benefit the preservation of Lakewood Theater.
